Dear Parents and Guardians,

The York County School of Technology has been notified that additional criminal charges are being filed against its former teacher, Kevin Nagle. Mr. Nagle is no longer employed by the School of Technology. He was removed from his teaching duties on November 18, 2016, when troubling allegations first emerged. The York County School of Technology reported the information it received to local police and made all mandatory reports, and has continued to cooperate fully with the investigation of Mr. Nagle by law enforcement. School officials urge anyone with pertinent information concerning Mr. Nagle to report it to the York Area Regional Police Department.

Sincerely,

Dr. David W. Thomas, Director
